

Protect Your Legacy with RENOSI

Whether you think about them or not, your assets are key!

It's no secret that the BSA has been under a lot of heat lately. Whether a trailer or the scout hut, it's crucial to protect your assets.

Organization is a must — how you do it counts!

RENOSI recommends an affiliated entity set-up. What is an affiliated entity? Good question. In a nutshell, it's a nonprofit organized separately from a high risk organization, to protect its assets. Think of a college endowment fund.
